WARRIOR NEWS JANUARY/FEBRUARY 2014

Message from the Editor of the WN January 30, 2014

Dear Parents & Guardians,

A team often mirrors its leader(s) in its attitude and actions. With that in mind, the WN would like to share a letter sent to staff at the beginning of the New Year from CEO/Principal Kelly Batiste . . .

Dear Fannie Family,

At the end of a year people often make resolutions for the upcoming year! For different reasons it often becomes difficult to maintain those resolutions! If we are to continue to be successful at what we do, we must all resolve to commit to the following:

Working collaboratively to ensure our students are receiving the best education possible!

Remaining positive in all of our interactions with each other, with students, and with parents!

Supporting each other in the work that we do!

Celebrating successes along the way, big or small!

I thank God daily for blessing me with such a great team! Together, we will continue to make FCWCS a positive place to learn and grow!

. . . I certainly appreciate each and everyone of you! I'm looking forward to a fantastic 2014 with the Fannie Family!

—Mrs. Kelly Batiste, Principal

Just as teachers emulate their school's administrators, students their teachers, and children their parents, we are all our "brother's keeper." We are hoping that you find inspiration in Mrs. Batiste's letter to staff. You remain positive in your interactions with your children and staff, you support your child and their teachers in their academic endeavors, and you celebrate your child's achievements, big or small. With that, we're off to a great 2014 at FCWCS!

—tms, Editor WN

From the Desk of Nurse Cheryl Robichaux, R.N, B.S.N.

A word or two from our school's handbook . . .

The school nurse provides first aid only. She does not diagnose illness, but will note symptoms and notify parents of her observations. Students injured at school will be administered first aid and parents will be notified.

Parents with ill children should do the following:

- keep a sick child at home;
- ensure children always wash their hands after using the restroom and before eating;

- make sure your ill child does not share food with other children;
- throw away used tissues immediately;
- make sure your sick child drinks plenty of fluids to avoid dehydration;
- check an ill child's breathing and temperatures at regular intervals;
- keep the child in bed and warm;
- make sure medications are kept in child-proof containers and out of the reach of children.

The entire school community is endangered when these guidelines are not followed. Medical clearance is needed for any student absent five or more days from the classroom. ###

Emergencies do arise . . .

Could we get in contact with you quickly if we needed to? Does the school's main office have the following info regarding your family:

1. Parent's/guardian's full name;
2. Complete and up-to-date home address;
3. Home phone number (landline if applicable)
4. Cell phone number of parent (including area code);
5. Phone number of two (2) relatives or close family friends and theirs names and relationship(s) to the student;
6. Physician's name and phone number;
7. Medical alert information (e.g., is your child diabetic, asthmatic, allergic to certain foods, insect stings? We need to know). ###

Spring Scholastic Book Fair

Librarian Karen LeBlanc has announced the dates for our bi-annual spring book fair. The fair will be held the week of March 24th, in the school's media center.

Hundreds of books and assorted items, geared to students in grades Pre-K through 8th grade, will be available for purchase.

Flyers will be sent home the week before the book sale, allowing parents to assist their child in making appropriate decisions in choosing just the right book. Of course, parents are always welcome to come in and purchase the books themselves for their offspring. Cash and credit cards will be accepted for payment.

FCWCS holds two book fairs each school year. Reading is fundamental to the development of our students as scholars. Reading is one of the most basic skills that children must learn to be successful in school and in life. We encourage parents to allow all of our scholars the opportunity to make at least one purchase during our book fair this spring. ###

Parents do you have a smartphone or tablet computer? If the answer is yes, you may want to check out Scholastic's mobile apps at www.scholastic.com/apps/

Girl Scout Cookies On Sale

Fannie's newest organization, Girl Scout Troop 41296, has joined one of the greatest traditions of scouting—they are selling cookies!

Buy a box of cookies and help our girls learn 5 essential skills—goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills, and business ethics (according to the official Girl Scouts website).

Don't know any of our scouts? Come into the school's office or see Scout Leader Mrs. Barnett and sign the order form for your favorite box of cookies. Thanks ahead of time for your order. ###

We're Hoping to Keep You Part of the Fannie Family

More than 300 families (approx. 575 students) have made FCWCS their educational home this school year. We are hoping to keep them for the 2014-2015 school year. We are also hoping to attract a few more scholars to our family of learners.

Do you know of anyone who wishes to enroll a child in FCWCS? Did they make the Schools Expo on Sat., Feb. 1st? If not, they can also visit the website enrollnola.org for information.

Enrollment has officially launched for the standard One App, running from Jan. 13-Feb. 28. The Week of Apr. 7th will mark period the Main Round placement notification will be mailed.

Students already enrolled at FCWCS will be given an Intent to Return form in the early spring. As always, they have first preference to seats available. This form will save a seat for your child for next year. Please return it immediately after you receive it. Parents do not have to fill out the app at the EXPO unless they are changing their child's school (8th graders, for example) or enrolling a little one in school for the first time.

The school's administration anticipates that it will have its formal registration during the early summer. ###

FCWCS Library

Books borrowed from the school's library are due back one (1) week from checkout.

Our library presently has about 7500 books. Many of these tomes (books) were part of a grant given to us by the Laura Bush Foundation for America's Libraries during the 2007-2008 school year.

Parents are asked to ensure that their children keep the books in good condition as they use them at home and return them to the school in same condition that they received them. Parents will be responsible for any book that is mutilated, destroyed or lost. ###

Annual School Expo Spotlights Schools

The New Orleans Urban League once again sponsored its Annual School Expo.

The event took place on Saturday, February 1st at the Superdome. Its purpose was to provide parents with one-stop shopping for public schools in New Orleans. It provided parents and guardians the chance to talk to school personnel about their learning institutions. This allowed parents an opportunity to make informed choices about where to send their sons or daughters for the 2014-2015 school year.

The expo ran from 10:00 a.m. - 2 p.m. Copies of the Urban League's Guide to New Orleans Public Schools were available at the Expo. Copies of the Guide to New Orleans High Schools were also available. It contains a wealth of information about high schools in New Orleans. The Spring 2013 edition of the elementary and middle school version can be found on the Internet at www.neworleansparentsguide.org.

FYI . . .

Are you pleased with the quality of instruction at FCWCS? We hope so and are hoping your scholar returns to us next year. Students are guaranteed the ability to return to FCWCS if you do not submit an One App with alternate choices.. ###

Inclement Weather Closes FCWCS & Other Parish Schools

Unusually frigid weather hit southern states for the second time this winter on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 28th and 29th.

Our Leadership Team decided (along with other school leaders in the region) to close school the 28th and 29th of January. It was a wise decision. You only have to watch the news and see what happened in Atlanta and Birmingham to understand how difficult it is for schools to have our youngest citizens at school when temperatures cause the closure of roads. Hundreds of students in Atlanta were stranded on school buses for over 12 hours. Several thousand more spent the night in their classrooms.

The decision was made Monday afternoon to close FCWCS on Tuesday and Wednesday. Parents were notified by flyers sent home with students, the school's website (fcwcs.org), WWL-TV's website, the local news, and our newest method of reaching parents, J-Call.

J-Call is an automated phone system that calls the homes of every student with important information. The voice you heard was Principal/CEO Kelly Batiste. Sometimes the "voice" will be a computer-generated voice. But the message will always be an important one—please listen and take note!

Did you receive such a message? If you didn't, it is probably because we don't have a current phone number for you! Please provide us with up-to-date contact information (home address, cell phone number, landline number, and secondary contact person(s) in case you can't be reached).

Black History T-Shirt Contest

Each year, in conjunction with our Black History Celebration, art teacher Phillip Britt and CAO Terri Williams spearhead a t-shirt design contest.

Open to students in grades 4-8, more than 50 artists submitted designs this year. Select members of the staff voted to choose the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place designs, void of the names of the artists. Each submission was based upon this year's Black History theme, "Black History in the Making: Leaders of Today for A Better Tomorrow."

We are pleased to announce this year's winners. They are:

1st Place: Kodey Cooper & Robert Lewis

2nd Place: Abdul Blue

3rd Place: Sheldon Scott

Watch out for Cooper's and Lewis's winning design on this year's shirt. Shirts will be sold to students and staff. Youth sized t-shirts are $10.00 and adult sized shirts are $12.00.

All monies were due by Thurs., January 30th. ###

Annual Black History Program Slated for February 28th

In keeping with our tradition, we are preparing students for our annual month long Black History Celebration, culminating in a program on Fri., February 28th.

This year's theme, "Black History in the Making: Leaders of Today for a Better Tomorrow," has the entire school preparing. We've already had our t-shirt contest (see story above). There is also scheduled a Quiz Bowl

(Feb. 7th, Grades 3-8); HBCU

Step Show (Feb. 14th); The Fannie Factor (Staff Talent Show, Feb. 21st); and the grand finale, The Annual Black History Program (Feb. 28th).

Students in Pre-K through 3rd grade program will take place from 9-10:30 a.m. Upper grades will have their program 1:15-3:00 p.m.

CAO T. Williams and Instructional Coach T. Daigle are seeking students who wish to showcase their talents. See you, front and center, in February.

Voices of Fannie C. Williams "On Tour"

Choir Director Kitty Wright has been keeping her songbirds singing all over the metro area. December and January "tour dates" included gigs at a local nursing facility and a date at the Marriott Hotel on Canal Street.

Each engagement brings a little more poise and confidence to the "Voices." The hardwork in the vocal music class seems to be paying off. Good job Warriors! ###

Program,

made its way to our campus during the first

Hurricane Katrina in 2005.

Fifth graders in Mses. Cobbins's and Lehr's homerooms took part in this year's class. The international program seeks to prevent use of controlled drugs, membership in gangs, and violent behavior. The organization attempts to teach students good decision-making skills to assist them in leading safe and healthy lives, away from drugs, gangs, and violent activity.

Lady Warriors Show Promise & Tenacity

In what was a tough season for our Lady Warriors Basketball Team, we know definitely one thing about them, they've go heart!

Now in the second season of the girls' basketball program at FCWCS, "the ladies
continued to show growth," according to Coach D'Lon Herbert. This was the first year they were members of the Metro Middle School League. Their record was 1-11, but were probably the most improved of any team in the league.
They received compliments, from coaches and parents alike, as they tackled the district's best team St. Bernard Middle School. They gave SBMS "a run for their money" to advance to the next round of the championship tourney.

In their best effort of the season, The Lady Warriors were down 11 to 3, before they fought their way back. Ultimately, the LW loss 21-16, but it was a nail biter to the last second on the clock. The scoreboard, yet again, did not tell the full story of the respect gained for our female athletic program. "I'm so proud of what these girls have accomplished and I anticipate continuous success as the team matures," said Coach Herbert in an interview with the WN.

The girls are still out there giving it their all, although putting W's in the win column has not been easy for them. They will face off against Dibert and Esperanza Schools in the month of February. Keep your ears open for the date. They are worth a looksee! ###
