8th Grade Scholars Visit Atlanta's HBCUs

31 students and their chaperones spend the first days of Spring Break in Atlanta, GA

March 20 - March 22, 2016

31 students and 8 chaperones embarked on a two-day journey to Atlanta, Georgia. Their mission, to tour HBCUs Spelman, Morehouse, and Clark-Atlanta Universities. Also, they would visit the Center for Civil and Human Rights and the The World of Coca-Cola Museum.

Warriors were able to experience college campus life, the history of the world's most popular drink, and the a museum shows the American Civil Rights Movement (pictured above) and its impact on today's Global Human Rights Movements.

This has got to be this year's ultimate field trip! Thanks to all who made it happen.

April 5, 2016

Dear Parents,

My last month's message spoke of the strong possibility that FCWCS would return to Orleans Parish School Board (aka New Orleans Public Schools) supervision.

The decision has been finalized. We will remain under the auspices of the Recovery School District (RSD) for the foreseeable future. Therefore, we will enter the 2016-2017 with a renewed charter from the Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (BESE) and under the continued guidance of the RSD.

FCWCS was granted a Type 5 charter back in December 2010. On a cold day in December, we broke ground on this building and received the vote of confidence to operate as Fannie C. Williams Charter School, under the auspices of Community Leaders Advocating Student Success (C.L.A.S.S.), our Board of Directors. This school term saw the renewal of that charter for another six years.

Our mission remains the same—"to achieve the highest academic success through the collaboration of staff, parents, and community." You have entrusted your child(ren) to our care. We are constantly developing that "village" from the old African proverb ("it takes a village to raise a child") to develop the entire child—emotionally, physically, culturally, and of course, academically.

We hope you continue to have faith in our mission and our tenacity to see that the mission is carried out. As always, we appreciate your vote of confidence.

-Kelly S. Batiste, Principal/CEO

Girl Talk's On Campus

Female Students Talk About Issues Facing Them

The WN has been informed by Counselor Jackie Edmond that a new program has been initiated on campus—Girl Talk.

It provides a forum for 8th Grade female students to talk about the issues they face daily.

Females in the Class of 2020 meet every Thursday at 11:00 am for their session that allows them to “let their hair down and be free to express who they are.” This gathering occurs during the same time our male students are involved with The Silverback Society, a male mentoring group developed by

New Orleanian Lloyd Dennis and the late Arthur

Wardsworth. The Silverbacks have been on campus two years. Girl Talk is in its inaugural year at FCWCS.

Girl Talk is spearheaded by CEO Shelia Dixon of Enhanced Destiny and co-assistant Josie Bourne, along with FCWCS's school counselor Jackie Edmond. The organization has been around since 1999.

It believes that “a Girl Talk Girl, is like a caterpillar who seeks to Become Herself . . . A Beautiful Butterfly.” (–Erin Mozier)

By now, all our 8th graders should have several apps in place for their 9th grade year. The application allows students to submit the app for up to eight (8) schools, in order of their preferences. Those 8th graders who followed these directives will receive their placement for the 2016-2017 school year the week of April 4, 2016.

Parents wishing to get a Kindergarten or Pre-K student here next year, should have also taken action in Round 1 Pre-K spots are very limited. We have only 40 seats at FCWCS for Pre-K. Do you have a neighbor or relative trying to get a child into FCWCS? Now is the time to tell them about the oneApp process.

Round 2 logistics are as follows:
Week of April 18: Application Launched; May 6: Early Window Deadline ; May 27: Standard Window Deadline; Week of June 27: Results Available.

Parents needing to begin registration for new students should go to one of three Family Resource Centers to begin. The centers are as follows:
