PK – 8	Special Education teachers work with students primarily in the classroom and provide instruction with accommodations, modifications and differentiated instruction when necessary and according to each student’s individualized education plan. Students in Pre-K use the OWLS (Opening the World of Learning Literacy Curriculum). K-8 th grade students are presented with instruction through the Wit and Wisdom Curriculum for English Language Arts. Special education teachers provide students access to the general education curriculum by scaffolding to their independent and instructional levels, when needed. Students in K-8 th grade will receive mathematics instruction through the use of the Eureka curriculum.	Special Education teachers provide pull out services for small group/ individualized instruction when necessary according to the special education minutes stated on each student’s individualized education plan. Teachers use the evaluations, reading scores, phonics screener, math scores, and progression of assignments to determine if students should be removed from class and for how long a student should be removed from the general education classroom.	Special Education teachers provide instruction to students with disabilities in a self-contained setting who require instruction in a more restrictive environment. This setting focuses on a life skills curriculum and provides students with the instruction they need to be as independent as possible upon leaving our school and transitioning to a high school setting. All students who participate in the LEAP Connect alternate assessment, as well as students in the self-contained setting are provided with instruction through the use of the Unique Learning Curriculum designed around LEAP Connector Standards. This program is a standards-based set of interactive tools specifically designed for students with special needs to access the general curriculum.

Description of extended school year services:	Extended School Year Program (ESYP) is the provision of special education and related services to students with disabilities in accordance with an IEP

Special Education Program Description

	beyond the normal school year of the LEA and at no cost to the parents of the student. Identification: The ESYP Eligibility Criteria must be used in determining eligibility for extended school year services. The IEP team, (teacher, speech-language pathologist, OT, PT, parent, social worker, etc.), provides instruction and collects data on the student’s performance. These data are used to determine whether there is a need for the ESYP. Students who meet the criteria are screened annually to determine their eligibility for ESYP. Delivery: As during the regular school year, the ESYP IEP team must document instructional activities on lesson/activity plans. Ongoing student performance assessment is always an integral part of any educational program; it should be documented on appropriate data collection forms (e.g., grade book, checklist, task analysis form) and progress reports.
Description of specialized program(s):	Criteria for participation: Fannie C. Williams Charter School meets the individualized needs of all students. At this time we do not offer any specialized programs. Delivery: N/A
